“Digital Age Pedagogy”

A Faculty Development Programme was organized on 25.08.2018 on the topic “Digital Age Pedagogy”. Dr.S.Senthilnathan, Director, UGC Human Resource Development Centre, Bharathidasan University, Khajamalai Campus, Thiruchirappalli. He enlightened the faculty members on enriching learning with Digital Experience. He said that we should not replace the previous method of teaching. Digital Age is the Revolution in the communication technology. Open Educational Resources with free of cost is available anywhere and the faculty members should motivate the students to login to the digital world to experience the modern way of learning methodology. In Digital age new process and practices in all spheres of human enterprises is available and everyone should make use of them.

He also announced the importance of Massive Online Open Courses (MOOC) and SWAYAM platform and its role in teaching methodology. He motivated the staff members to adopt the modern techniques and tools in teaching skills to face the ‘Z’ generation students. He informed the faculty member about the various free learning website addresses to enter into the Digital Age Pedagogy.
